

Writing May 25-30

Wednesday: Many of you did not turn in your Dust Bowl essay from last week. As of today, I only have received 7 final copies. Please take time this week and finish your essay and send a picture of it to me. If you have already done that, yay! you have no new writing to do this week!

Thursday: Finish your final copy of your Dust Bowl essay and send a picture of it to me.

Friday: Complete your final copy and send it to me if you haven't done so already!
